The Corpſe of his Royal Highneſs was met at the Church Door by the Dean and Prebendaries, attended by the Gentlemen of the Choir and King's Scholars, who fell into the Proceſſion immediately before the Officer of Arms, with Wax Tapers in their Hands, and properly habited, and began the common Burial Service (no Anthem being compoſed on this Occaſion) two Drums beating a Dead March during the Service. Upon entering the Chapel, the Royal Body was placed on Treſſels, the Crown and Cuſhion at the Head, and the Canopy held over, the Supporters of the Pall ſtanding by; the chief Mourner, and his two Supporters ſeated in Chairs at the Head of the Corpſe; the Lords Aſſiſtants, Maſter of the Horſe, Groom of the Stole, and Lords of the Bedchamber, on both Sides; the Four white Staff Officers on the Feet, the others ſeating themſelves in the Stalls on each Side of the Chapel, the Biſhop of Rocheſter, Dean of Weſtminſter, then read the firſt Part of the Burial Service, after which the Corpſe was carried to the Vault, preceded by the White Staff Officers, the Maſter of the Horſe, chief Mourner, his Supporters and Aſſiſtants, Garter King of Arms going before them. When they had placed themſelves near the Vault, and the Corpſe being laid upon a Machine even with the Pavement of the Chapel, was by Degrees let down into the Vault, when the Biſhop of Rocheſter went on with the Service; which being ended, Garter proclaimed his late Royal Highneſs's Titles in the following Manner: Thus it hath pleaſed Almighty God to take out of this tranſitory Life to his Divine Mercy, the moſt illuſtrious Frederick Prince of Wales, &c. &c.

The Nobility and Attendants returned in the ſame Order they preceeded, at half an Hour after nine; ſo that the whole Ceremony laſted an Hour.

As ſoon as the Proceſſion of the Funeral of his late Royal Highneſs began to move, two Rockets were fired off in Old Palace Yard as a Signal for the Guns in the Park to fire, which was followed by thoſe of the Tower, during which Time the Great Bells of Weſtminſter, and St. Paul's Cathedral tolled, as did moſt of the Pariſhes in London.

BOSTON, June 13.

Thurſday laſt Mr. John Dixcy, Maſter of a Marblehead fiſhing Schooner, came to Town and declared, That on the 26th of May laſt, in the Evening, about ſix Leagues from Cape Sable, he met with a French Man of War of 36 Guns and 300 Men, including 50 Mariners, and the next Morning was deſired to come on board, which he did, and was told by the Frenchman that he was bound to Annapolis Royal, and that his Buſineſs was to remove the French Inhabitants back to ſome Place, the Name of which Mr. Dixcy has forgot.——That the Affairs relating to the Boundaries, &c. were ſettled, and that he ſaw Governor Shirley in Paris about ſeven Weeks before.—That he ſhould ſend from Annapolis to Canada, and wait till he had an Anſwer, which he expected in a Month, and that then he ſhould go to Cape Breton. During the Converſation, Mr. Dixcy aſked the C. whether it was War or like to be War? who anſwered No, it was all Peace, tho' Capt. Rous has done an ill Action, in firing on a French Brigantine after he had haled her, before ſhe had Time to return an Anſwer, and enquired where Rous was; and being told he was gone to England, he (the Frenchman) ſaid he believed he was at Hallifax, and then aſked if there was any Engliſh Men of War at Annapolis, to which Mr. Dixcy anſwered, he believed not, and then took his Leave, but next Morning ſaw the Ship ſteering up the Bay of Fundy. Her Nettings were filled with Oakam, Caſks, &c. and every Thing in ſuch Order, as if they ſoon expected an Engagement.

By a Veſſel from Chignecto we have Advice, that Col. Lawrence, who commands our Troops poſted there, having received a Reinforcement of Men from Hallifax, was preparing to attack the French and Indians in their Camp at a ſmall Diſtance from him.

We hear from the Eaſtward, that the Indians have lately kill'd and ſcalp'd five Men at New Meadows, one of which has left Ten Children.

June 24. By Capt. Philips, who arrived here laſt Night in about ſeven Weeks from London, we hear, that the terrible Complaint of the Weſt India Merchants againſt the Northern Colonies, for trading to the French and Dutch Plantations, was like to come to Nothing; but that the Bill for ſinking the Paper Currencies in New-England, was to come under the Conſideration of the Houſe of Commons, in a few Days after Capt. Phillips ſailed.

We hear from ſeveral of the neighbouring Towns that very conſiderable Damage has been done by the Tempeſt on Monday laſt; the Wind and Hail beating down the Grain, breaking the Glaſs Windows of many Houſes, throwing down Trees, &c. Some Fields were ſo over ſpread with the Hail, which lay thereon till the next Day, that they appeared as if covered with Snow; and in ſome Places it was drifted into great Bodies above two Feet high, which lay the greateſt Part of the next Day.——'Tis ſaid that the Hail Stones were ſome of them as big as Pullets Eggs.

ANNAPOLIS.

We have been infeſted in this Town and Neighbourhood for ſome Time paſt, with a Parcel of Thieves and Robbers, but from whence they come, or who they are, cannot yet be found out, altho' we have ſtrong Suſpicions. Almoſt every Day, ſince the Attempt made at Mr. Cole's, has brought a freſh Account of ſome new Villainy either attempted or perpetrated; but we muſt make Allowance for Exaggeration: However, it is certain, that on Friday laſt, near South River, a Gentleman of this Town was ſtopp'd by two Men well mounted and arm'd, who forced him out of the Road and wou'd have robb'd him, but as he happen'd to have no Money about him, they, after many Threats, let him go. Another Gentleman eſcaped them by the Swiftneſs of his Horſe. They have robb'd ſeveral Negroes of Things they were bringing to Market; and have done ſo many Villainies that the travelling the Road, except in Companies and with Arms, ſeems unſafe, and People are afraid of coming to Market. Several Companies have gone out at ſundry Times, with Fire-Arms and Dogs, to ſearch for them in the almoſt impenetrable Fields of Pines near the Town; but without Succeſs: And it is fear'd they are now grown more formidable, having ſtole ſundry good Horſes, and are (if we can believe Reports) four or five in Number. One Night three of them had the Impudence to ride almoſt up to the Town Gate and hang their Horſes, when one of the Watchmen, (for we have a conſtant ſtrong Watch kept every Night) ſtept up to him, and would have taken him but obſerving another of them ſtoop, as he apprehended to fire at him, preſented his Piſtol, but it miſs'd fire, on which the Rogues made off with great Precipitation before any more of the Watch could come to him, and left one of their Horſes, which they took and brought into Town. Some Gentlemen in Town have publiſhed an Advertiſement offering Forty Piſtoles for the apprehending of them.

The two Men, ſo often mentioned in this Paper, who went by the Names of Newton and Jones, and who murdered the Maſter and Mate of a Veſſel which came into St. Mary's ſome Time ago, are arrived from Boſton, and confined in St. Mary's County Goal, in order for their Trial, either at a Special Court to be appointed for that Purpoſe, or at the Provincial Court.
